

Jim Cane
(Service Award)

National Rose Society of Australia Inc Service Award 2008 Jim Cane

The Rose Society of South Australia has much pleasure in nominating Mr Jim Cane for the National Rose Society of Australia Service Award.

Prior to becoming a member of our Society, Jim was a member of the Rose Society of Tasmania.

Jim represented Tasmania as its delegate at the NRSA AGMs in 1992, 1993 and 1994, then again in 1996, 1997, and 1998, was elected as the NRSA Vice President in 1994 and in 1995 represented the National Body as its President.

In 2001 Jim was elected as the NRSA Honorary Treasurer, a position he has held up to this present time.

When presenting his financial reports, Jim has been diligent with his recommendations, ensuring the NRSA remains financially sound.

The Society believes Mr Jim Cane has demonstrated his dedication and outstanding service to the NRSA, and is a worthy recipient of the National Rose Society of Australia Service Award.